TO WATCH, FOR EVERYONE

Churches

Free screening rights for services and gatherings,
plus early access to new releases for partner congregations.

Schools & ministries

Use the animations in teaching and curriculum — we help you pick the right stories for the right ages.

Founding partners

Institutions that help fund a whole book are credited in it, permanently. Your name, on the Word, forever.

Translation partners

Help bring the animations into your language and reach your community with scripture they can watch.

Radical transparency: every dollar goes into production.

We run no offices and build no paywalls. Partners see exactly what their support renders — the finished scenes are public proof, and the progress meters on our site move in the open.
